

Anthony Andaya

REALTOR® & Regional Office Manager, Coldwell Banker West San Diego

Anthony Andaya is a dedicated and passionate real estate professional & regional office manager for Coldwell Banker West in San Diego. He is committed to serving his industry and expanding industry knowledge. Anthony has built a reputation for excellence and is widely respected by his peers. In 2016, Anthony served as the local association president, where he demonstrated his leadership skills and dedication to his community. He currently serves as a state director where he continues to make a positive impact on the industry. Anthony is passionate about connecting with like-minded professionals who share his values and beliefs. He is particularly focused on protecting private property rights, expanding homeownership to as many people as possible, and supporting those in service to their profession.